

About Halvard Industrial Services

Halvard Industrial Services is a plant maintenance and industrial cleaning contractor serving municipal and private clients in Kettleburn County and the surrounding region. We have been family-owned since 2009.

Headquarters: 1140 Rennard Way, Kettleburn. Yard and fleet: 1140 Rennard Way, Building C. Main line: 555-0142. Accounts: accounts@halvardindustrial.example.

Leadership

Vernon Haight — Founder & Chief Executive Officer

Founded Halvard Industrial Services in 2009 after twenty-two years in commercial plant services. Sits on the Kettleburn Industrial Park association board.

Della Kroft — Chief Operating Officer

Joined in 2012. Runs scheduling, crew assignment and client relationships across the municipal and private books.

Miles Trombley — Director of Field Operations

Joined in 2019 from a logistics background. Responsible for night-shift crews, site access credentialing and the company's contractor badge programme.

Rosalind Pike — Vice President, Compliance

Joined in 2015. Oversees contractor screening, insurance and the company's obligations under its public-sector contracts.

Aubrey Sandoval — Controller

Joined in 2016. Accounts payable, payroll and vendor onboarding.

Glenn Mabey — Fleet Manager

Joined in 2014. Maintains the company's 31 vehicles and the Rennard Way yard.

Services

Industrial cleaning · Plant and pump maintenance · Tank and vessel servicing · Grounds and janitorial · 24-hour call-out

Current public-sector clients

Kettleburn County Water Authority — Lattimer Road treatment plant (maintenance, 2024–2029).

Kettleburn County — county administration building, Calloway Street (janitorial). Fenn Federal Building annex, Kettleburn — grounds and janitorial, under subcontract.